

Raleigh, NC – Hospice of Wake County received 50 children’s gift bags from Allison “Grace” Forster, age 14, as part of her Girl Scout Silver Award project. Grace, who is the number one jump roper in the United States, enlisted help from her fellow jumpers to provide stuffed animals and received books from her fellow church members. In addition, each bag, which will be given to children participating in Hospice of Wake County’s Reflections grief program or to children of patients, includes a coloring book, crayons, stickers -- all appropriate for providing a sense of comfort or self-expression. Grace is a freshman at Spring Hope High School and her mother, Denise Wotovich is a volunteer with Hospice of Wake County.
